Certified Christian Workers Application

(Renews yearly)

Certified Christian Workers credentials may be issued to a person who has a call on his or her life to work for the Lord in some field other than that of preaching, pastoring or evangelizing. This may include Choir Director, musician, Sunday School Superintendent, Sunday School Superintendent, teacher, hospital visitation worker, house-to-house visitation, altar worker, street or jail service worker, or a ministry other than that of preaching. It is for persons actively involved in some aspect of ministry, usually under the supervision of a pastor. The Christian Worker is someone involved in the beginning steps of ministry, apprenticing under an established ministry to receive direction, guidance and "on-the-job" training. The Christian Worker is concerned and actively pursuing their development in the areas of personal character, Bible school training, and ministry.
